FACULTY OF LAW
UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA
1983-1984

DEAN'S MESSAGE

Thank you once again for offering me the opportunity of saying a few words in your Yearbook. For graduating students in particular the Yearbook will, over the years, bring back memories and amusement in relation to the highlights of their last year. The inevitable question will be "I wonder where X is today" or, as some of your classmates are appointed to the Bench, you might remind them you have candid shots courtesy of the Yearbook should ostentatiousness set in.

Naturally, you are looking forward to your legal career with great anticipation and, I imagine, some trepidation. The judgemental qualities necessary in applying principles learned at law school to factual situations, makes the practice of law one which is a continual learning experience and never dull. One should never lose sight of the fact that the practice of law is a humanistic profession, never static, but continually moving in order to resolve disputes and conflicts which are extremely important to the individuals involved.

The camaraderie of law school will continue in practising the profession of law in Alberta. As Shakespeare said

"Do as adversaries do in law. Strive mightily but eat and drink as friends."

We at the law school are proud of your accomplishments and look forward to following your careers in the future. We are delighted when you take the time to drop in and see us, and I urge you to do so. I am sure you will receive a very warm welcome.

May I wish you good health, success in your career, and pride in your accomplishments.

COMPETITION MOOTS 1983-84

After approximately four years of planning the first Alberta Challenge Cup was held March 2-3, 1984 at the University of Alberta Law School. This is appellate moot competition between the University of Alberta and the University of Calgary. The winner of the first competition was the University of Calgary. The competition involves the mooting of three separate problems. The university that wins two of the three moots wins the Alberta Challenge Cup. The Law School was represented by six second year students: Shannon O'Byrne, Kathy Krywiak, Michael Bailey, Wayne Hatt, Linda Long and Dale Andersen.

Ms. Krywiak and Ms. O'Byrne were also winners of the 1983 Edmonton Bar Moot Court Competition. Ms. Long teamed with Neil Campbell as runners-up in that competition. Messrs. Bailey, Hatt and Andersen were chosen for the Alberta Challenge Cup during the Edmonton Bar Moot Preliminary Round.

Ronald Sawchuk, Law 3, and David Stam, Law 2, won the first John C. Coughlan Trial Moot Competition. This competition, honouring the late John C. Coughlan, Judge of the Provincial Court of Alberta, is sponsored by the Criminal Trial Lawyers Association. Third year students Allan Shewchuk and John Pfriem were runners-up. The competition began with a preliminary round in which eight teams participated. From this group two teams were chosen to moot the final problem. Each side called two witnesses, a voir dire was held, and Charter arguments made. Messrs. Sawchuk and Stam represented the University of Alberta Law School in the Western Canada Trial Moot Competition held in Winnipeg and were runners-up.

Jeffrey Champion and Basil Barnes won the 1983-84 Clinton J. Ford Moot Court Competition. They represented the University of Alberta in the 1984 Gale Cup National Mooting Competition in Toronto. Also on the Gale Cup team were Michael Ford and Charles Davison. Messrs. Ford and Davison were runners-up in the Clinton Ford Competition.

To round out its mooting program the Law School continued to participate in the Jessup International Mooting Competition. The 1983-84 team was comprised of Annalise Acorn, Travis Huckell, Robert McCue, Terry Hunt and John Legge.

This year U of A hosted the annual Western Canada Law Hockey Tournament. Teams from across Canada competed, with the eight men's teams from Victoria, Calgary, British Columbia, Saskatchewan, Ottawa, Osgoode Hall and Alberta law schools along with a U of A alumni team. The six women's entries were from Saskatchewan, Calgary, Victoria, Alberta, British Columbia and Alberta alumni.

On the men's side, U of A lost out in the final to Osgoode, while Victoria defeated the U of A alumni in the women's final.

Through the hard work of organizers Dave Paull, Barry Heck and Michelle Stanners, as well as various volunteers, a number of social events were organized as well. These included a hospitality night, FABS, and a banquet and Halloween dance on the final night. The Halloween dance was the best attended function of the weekend, with everyone getting a chance to see what law students are really like when they cut loose.

LOAD

Who says law professors don't appreciate their students? Such was not the case at the end of the year when John Law held the annual "Golden Bow Tie Awards" in his Admin class. Lucky recipients received special awards hand made by Professor Law himself, and the class reciprocated by presenting him with a special gift. Could this be law school's answer to the Oscars?

Wills professor Cecilia Johnstone was treated to a musical serenade courtesy various class members. Undoubtedly it was a memorable experience for her. The words to the song are set out below (special thanks to D. Roberts).

CECILIA

Cecilia, you're breaking my heart,
You're shaking my confidence daily,
Oh Cecilia, I'm down on my knees,
Begging you please to pass me.

Making wills in the afternoon,
With Cecilia up in my bedroom,
I got up to wash my face,
When I come back to bed,
Hughson's taken my place.

Cecilia, you're breaking my heart,
You're shaking my confidence daily.
Oh Cecilia, I'm down on my knees,
Begging you please to pass me,
Please pass me.

Revocation, explain it again
I fall on the floor and die testate
Termination, explain it again
I fall on the floor and die testate.

CANADA LAW GAMES 1984 - OTTAWA

Close to 60 Alberta law students descended on Ottawa in late January to liven up the nation's capital during the Canada Law Games. The U of A contingent made themselves known as the best partiers of the whole tournament, especially at the final evening banquet with the balcony dancing and the toga (tablecloth) party. Besides all the social activities, there were also the sporting events (how could we forget?)

Both the men's and women's curling teams won their championships and brought trophys back to U of A. The men's hockey team lost only one game in the tournament, to the champion U of Ottawa alumni. The volleyball team made it to the final, and the basketball team lost in the semi-final.

32

[illegible] didn't fare quite as well but still [illegible] memorable moments. The darts team decided to leave the competition to their hotel room but neglected to let any of their opponents know - no one is really sure of the final results there. The broomball team [illegible] to survive cold outdoor games and (hell) broomball shoes were much admired by everyone as being truly high-fashion. And who could forget the women's hockey team, which will be remembered as the best singing and dancing hockey team on and off the ice (thanks to Sabrina and Michael Jackson) A memorable trip - Ottawa may never be the same again!

IN MEMORIAM

Betty-Anne Meleg

Betty-Anne Segatto (nee Meleg), a 3rd year law student who lived her life "in pursuit of excellence" died in February 1984. She had been ill for some time. The following is a brief tribute written by several friends and 3rd year classmates of Betty-Anne.

Betty-Anne Segatto (nee Meleg) transferred to the University of Alberta Faculty of Law in 1982 after completing her first year of law at the University of Windsor. Many people will remember her as the pleasant, polite woman who occupied the corner carrel on the second floor of the Library. She would treasure being remembered as such for she valued courtesy very highly and detested rudeness. A diligent worker, Betty-Anne could be seen rooted to her carrel for hours on end. However, one could occasionally catch her in front of her huge stack of books, wearing her earplugs, flicking through Glamour magazine with tremendous concentration!

Betty-Anne's common sense, good nature and intellectual abilities made her an invaluable member of the Alberta Law Review Editorial Board. She served as an Associate Editor in 1982/83, and as a Managing Editor thereafter until she was forced to leave by her illness. She also played a mean air banjo in last year's Law Review air band, Fidel and the Havana Brass.

For those of us who knew Betty-Anne well, her warmth, cheerful spirit and personal courage will always be an inspiration. She touched many people in her brief life and we are all better for it.
